

Disruption to international travel or force majeure

inlingua Leeds strongly advises students travelling to the UK to take out student/travel insurance. The policy should cover flight delays for any reason.

inlingua Leeds's Cancellation and Refund Policy says that no refunds or extensions can be given in this situation. In the event of flight delays or force majeure and subsequent course cancellation or postponement, inlingua Leeds will not refund fees.

However, given exceptional circumstances, where a cancellation can be seen to be directly as a result of force majeure, we will look sympathetically at the individual circumstances and may issue certain discounts or refunds.

In all cases, it is the student's responsibility to keep the College informed by email and phone of any changes to travel plans. Failure to keep the College adequately informed, or to the best of the student's ability at the time, will mean no refund is possible.

inlingua Leeds takes the safety and welfare of every student very seriously. Wherever possible, the College will do all that is reasonably possible to limit any distress or inconvenience if a student is forced to make last-minute changes to his or her arrival or departure plans. However, inlingua Leeds cannot be accountable for changes outside of the College and students who agree to come to the College must take responsibility for themselves in these exceptional cases.
