

Whistleblowing Policy

inlingua Leeds is committed to being open and following all the rules of the UK. inlingua Leeds has clear policies and rules that all staff, students and partners must always follow.

If anyone thinks that someone at inlingua Leeds is breaking the rules of the College or the law, they are protected as a 'whistleblower'. This means the whistleblower will be protected from repercussions such as being dismissed, being excluded or being bullied.

If you think someone is breaking the rules at the college, please talk to the Operations and Academic Director. Anything you said will be kept private.

If you think that anyone in the inlingua Leeds management are breaking any rules, please speak to EnglishUK.

Created: 22/02/2019

Last Reviewed: 23/02/2023

To be reviewed: 26/02/2024

Management